

Agenda

Wednesday, November 11, 2026

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:30 a.m.  | Breakfast &amp; Exhibitors (non-accredited)                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 8:00 a.m.  | Pediatric Grand Rounds                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 9:00 a.m.  | Break &amp; Exhibitors (non-accredited)                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 9:15 a.m.  | Welcome (non-accredited)- Jonathan Miller, MD                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 9:20 a.m.  | Opening Remarks (non-accredited)- Robert S. Walter, MD                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 9:30 a.m.  | Evaluating Heart Rhythm Abnormalities in Children- Sean Connolly, DOPsychopharmacology for Young Children- Brittany Perry, DO & Meghan Harrison, DO                                                                 |
| 10:45 a.m. | Pediatric GI Pearls: Practical Do's and Don'ts for the General Pediatrician- Erika Kutsch, DOThe Extra Layer: Demystifying Pediatric Palliative Medicine for General Pediatricians- Mindy Fink, MD & Carly Levy, MD |
| 12:00 p.m. | Lunch &amp; Exhibitors (non-accredited)                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1:15 p.m.  | Diagnosis and Management of Pediatric Allergic Rhinoconjunctivitis- Isma Shah, MDPediatric Obesity in 2026: Lifestyle, Medications and When to Refer- Giovanna Uzelac, MD                                           |
| 2:30 p.m.  | Break &amp; Exhibitors (non-accredited)                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 2:45 p.m.  | MASTERS SESSIONEndocrine Pearls- Daniel Doyle, MDIs There A Doctor in the House? Is There a Doctor on Board?- Steven Selbst, MD                                                                      |
| 4:00 p.m.  | Adjourn                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 4:30 p.m.  | Nemours Alumni &amp; Healthcare Community Reception (non-accredited)                                                                                                                                                                       |