

Continuing Education

The Nemours Foundation is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

*As a provider accredited by the ACCME, Nemours Children's must ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in its educational activities. In accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education's Standards for Integrity and IndependenceSM, all planners, teachers, and authors involved in the development of CME content are required to disclose their relevant financial relationships that might be germane to the content of the activity. An individual has a relevant financial relationship if he or she has a financial relationship in any amount occurring in the last 24 months with an ineligible company whose products or services are discussed in the CME activity content over which the individual has control. Nemours has policies/processes in place to mitigate relevant financial relationships. All relevant relationships have been mitigated.

The ACCME defines an ineligible company is any entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. For specific examples of ineligible companies visit accme.org/standards.
