Nearby Attractions & Historical Sights

Hagley Museum + Library

The DuPont story began at Hagley, the 235-acre site of E. I. du Pont's gunpowder mills, founded in 1802.

Nemours Mansion & Gardens

Opulent 102-room Louis XVI-style chateau built in 1909-10 as the home of Alfred I. du Pont. One of the grand homes of America.

Winterthur Museum & Country Estate

Winterthur is the former home of Henry Francis du Pont, an avid antiques collector and horticulturist. A unique surviving example of a great American country house of the early 1900's.

Longwood Gardens

Pierre Samuel du Pont bought Pierce's Woods in 1906 to save it from logging. Today Longwood Gardens is a botanical garden that consists of over 1,077 acres of gardens, woodlands, and meadows in the Brandywine Creek Valley. It is one of the premier horticultural display gardens in the United States and is open to visitors year-round to enjoy native and exotic plants and horticulture (both indoor and outdoor), events and performances, seasonal and themed attractions, as well as educational lectures, courses, and workshops.
